

Latin Root spec/spic

In this worksheet, we examine the root spec/spic, which means look in Latin. The prefixes used in these words generally, but not always, have specific meanings. These will be dealt with in the Affixation section when all the worksheets come online. Put each of the words into the correct sentences in the correct form.

aspect, circumspect, conspicuous, expectation, inspection, introspective, perspective, prospect, respect, suspect

1. If I pass the exam my _____ for finding work will be excellent.
2. We should all _____ other people's views.
3. After the _____ the college received a good report from the Department for Education.
4. John's parents had very high _____ of him, so his poor exam results were very disappointing.
5. When dealing with such an important and complicated matter, it is necessary to be _____.
6. Before making a decision we have to examine every _____ of the plan.
7. Talking to someone else about your problems helps you to see them from a new _____.
8. Peter looked very _____ in his white suit.
9. Police _____ him of killing his wife, but they had no evidence.
10. Jane should stop talking about everybody else and think more about what she's doing. she should be more _____.