

Latin Root scrib/scrip

In this worksheet, we examine the root scrib/scrip, which means write in Latin. The prefixes used in these words generally, but not always, have specific meanings. These will be dealt with in the Affixation section when all the worksheets come online. Put each of the words into the correct sentences in the correct form.

ascribe, conscript, describe, inscription, prescribe, proscribe, scribble, scripture, subscribe, transcription

1. Can you _____ the people who attacked you?
2. It was difficult to read what the old man had _____ on the piece of paper.
3. The _____ on the tomb said "In loving memory of our dear father".
4. The doctor _____ antidepressants for her to try and improve her mental condition.
5. No one is sure who said these words, but they are _____ to Julius Caesar.
6. The opposition party was becoming so powerful that the government became extremely worried and _____ it, putting its leaders in jail.
7. When the war broke out, many young men were _____ into the army, many against their wishes.
8. Many religious people believe that the Bible and other _____ are the absolute truth revealed by God.
9. After recording the speech she made a _____ on her computer and printed it out.
10. If you want to _____ to "Student Weekly" magazine for a year, send £30 to us today.